CONTENTS

- 123 Seasons of Discontent and Revolt in Kashmir . . . . . Chitralkha Zutshi
Fueled by endemic corruption, harsh repression, and Islamist militancy, despair and violence have surged in the disputed territory. Has India finally lost Kashmir to a new nationalist movement?
- 130 The Tangled Politics of Postwar Justice in Sri Lanka . . . . . Jonathan Goodhand and Oliver Walton
High hopes that a new government would redress the long civil war's injustices have given way to lower expectations. The nation's old political and ethnic rifts did not disappear with one election.
- 136 Pakistan's Deadly Grip on Afghanistan . . . . . C. Christine Fair
Pakistan has long perceived vital national security interests at stake in Afghanistan, and defended them by any means necessary. Washington has been slow in recognizing this reality, to its cost.
- 142 India's Weakened Unions Face a Push for Reform . . . . . Emmanuel Teitelbaum
Despite weak union opposition, Narendra Modi's government so far has failed to push through its promised pro-business labor reforms. Instead, it is urging the states to lead the way.
Seventh in a series on labor relations around the world.
- 148 Can South Asia Share Its Rivers? . . . . . Gareth Price and Sonali Mitra
Increasing demands on a limited supply of water that will be even more strained by climate change point up the pressing need for a new approach to jointly managing the region's rivers.

PERSPECTIVE

- 154 Demonetization in India: One More Rock in the River . . . . . Anirudh Krishna
An attempt to curb tax evasion by taking large-denomination bills out of circulation overnight imposed new hardships on an Indian populace long accustomed to capricious government initiatives.

BOOKS

- 157 Brutal Realities of British Rule in India . . . . . Sumit Ganguly
A new book on Britain's reign in the subcontinent, departing from earlier generations of scholarship, does not sanitize the brutality and racism that undergirded the colonial enterprise.

THE MONTH IN REVIEW

- 160 February 2017
An international chronology of events in February, country by country, day by day.
